

Dear customers,
Dear partners,

BK-Systems Germany GmbH has exciting news for you.

As of 01.02.2024 we have taken over the company HEGA Antriebstechnik. HEGA Antriebstechnik has established itself over many decades as a reliable and competent distributor in the fields of electric motors and AKG coolers.

This acquisition brings two significant advantages for our customers:

- » Regarding AKG coolers, we can strengthen our competitiveness by gaining new customers - especially in the mobile sector - and continue to offer you an unrivaled, expert, and professional service.

- » By adding electric motors to our product portfolio, we can now offer you the complete hydraulic range from a single source. Additionally, we have secured the extensive expertise of Mr. Henne, ensuring that we are also a competent point of contact for all technical matters in this field.
